CLERGY REFLECTION:

God's word is alive and active. Stronger than a double edged sword. The Holy Spirit helps to bears much fruit in any heart that receives it with joy and gratitude. In the first reading, the Samaritans welcomed Philip and the Gospel with joy and were blessed with amazing miracles and healing. As we gradually prepare for Christ's ascension into heaven and the coming of the Holy Spirit, we are encouraged to embrace his words each day with an amazing openness of heart. Christ loved us first and is inviting us in the Gospel to reciprocate this love by keeping his commandments. As we strive to keep his commandments, his love continues to grow in us. He remains our loving father who has promised never to leave us orphans. Shalom!
~ Fr. Philip
